part - IIIsection - ISynopsis

29. Navika Sagar Parikrama was a project undertaken in agreement with National policy to entrust women to attain their full potential. The project is considered essential towards promoting ocean sailing activities in the navy while depicting government of India's thrust for women power. The voyage was aimed to show case "Make in India" initiative by sailing on board domestically built INSV Tarini. The special feature of this sail boat is that it encourages the use of environment friendly, non conventional renewable energy resources such as the wind. It collected and updated meteorological, ocean and waves data on regular basis. This is implemented for accurate weather forecast by the Indian meteorological department.

32, The order from Berlin read that only German should be taught in the school of Alsace and Lorraine after the Prussians defeated the French and the districts of Alsace and Lorraine came under Prussians. They not only wanted the territory but also wanted the language and culture of Germans to dominate it. M. Hamel who had taught French for forty years, felt the pain when the French language was being taught for the last time in the school of Alsace and Lorraine. He told that French was the most beautiful language, the most logical and that it was language that should be guarded to have that as the key to the prison of the enslaved people.
