The founding day of Madras is considered to be August 22, 1639. It was on that day, in that year, that a sliver of land, where Fort. St. George stands today, was transacted, by the East India Company. The deal was struck by Francis Day, his 'dubash' Beri Thimmappa, and their superior, Andrew Cogan, with the local Nayak rulers. It is believed that this deal was made on August 22, 1639. Out of the fort, grew settlements. Then the villages around it were brought together. And then, the old and new towns linked up. And then we had the city. Today, Chennai stands tall for a variety of reasons - education, healthcare, IT, history, tourism, auto industries, movies, etc. Madras Day focuses on the city, its history, its past and its present and the core team motivates

Read the following poem and answer the question that follow.

I wonder what put me away from my books,
 Ere I wandered along the streets in different looks
 And I bound to play with pals creating a boom,
 Now I find me spending time in a confined room,
 I forgot to enjoy the daily, fiction and play
 But sit before the small screen without delay
 I watch sports, reality shows and series
 That I spend the day with my own theories
 Small screens - Be on mute or off mode
 I would like to spend time with my family and friends;
 And pray for such a moment that never ends!!

- Where does the poet spend most of his time?
- Does the poet play with pals now?
