Drinking coffee and tea is something most of us do daily, and the brews are enjoyed more in the company of friends and relatives. During the pandemic, we realised the deep bond even more deeply. Covid - 19 has taught us the importance of this need. Groups can meet over a video call, each member enjoying a cup of tea; yet there is nothing like in person. It helps to reduce loneliness, care for one another and hold discussions, and hold discussions that lead to a deep connection. I suggest people to form this kind of groups and meet in convenient frequencies - daily, monthly or on weekends. An

(OR)

Read the following and answer the questions in your own words.

For me, 2022 began in New Delhi. I was struggling to produce enough artwork for a solo show. It was scheduled to open on February 14 at Chennai's Art World, run by Sarala Banerjee, the world's kindest and affectionate gallery owner.

But I live in the U.S. and had only just returned to India in mid-December. The show was called knots and crosses and that title perfectly describes how the whole of this year has been for me: multi-stranded, convoluted and tense. But fun and colourful, too.

Questions

- What was the name of the show called?
- Sarala Banerjee runs
- Where do the writer live?
- Find out the opposite of colourless in the paragraph.
- What was the work done by the writer?
