For me, 2022 began in New Delhi. I was struggling to produce enough artwork for a solo show. It was scheduled to open on February 14 at Chennai's Art World, run by Sarala Banerjee, the world's kindest and affectionate gallery owner.

But I live in the U.S. and had only just returned to India in mid-December. The show was called knots and crosses and that title perfectly describes how the whole of this year has been for me: multi-stranded, convoluted and tense! But fun and colourful, too.

Questions

- a) What was the name of the show called?
 b) Sarala Banerjee runs
 c) Where do the writer live?
 d) Find out the opposite of colourless in the paragraph.
 e) What was the work done by the writer?
