Of the six outer planets, Mars, commonly called the Red Planet, is closest to Earth. It takes this planet along with its two moons, Phobos and Deimos, 1.88 years to circle the Sun, compared to 365 days for the Earth.

(For many years, Mars had been thought of as the planet with the man-made canals supposedly discovered by an Italian astronomer, Schiaparelli in 1877.) With the United States space craft Viking I's landing on Mars in 1976, the man made canal theory was proven to be only a myth.

(Viking I, after landing on the soil of Mars, performed many scientific experiments and took numerous pictures.) The pictures showed that the red colour of the planet is due to the reddish, rocky Martian soil. No biological life was found, though it had been speculated by many scientists. The Viking also monitored many weather changes including violent dust storms. (Some water vapour, polar ice, and perma frost, (frost below the surface) were found, indicating that at one time there were significant quantities of water on this distant planet.) Evidence collected by the spacecraft shows some present volcanic action, though the volcanoes believed to be dormant, if not extinct.)

"The Little Tramp", the unforgettable character Charlie Chaplin invented, was born purely by accident in 1915. While rushing to a film shoot in California, he grabbed clothes what other people had left behind in the changing room. And when he emerged, he found, he had created a personality every body loved a little guy in a bowler hat, a close-fitting jacket, a cane, a pair of out sized shoes and a brush-like moustache.

Before long, Chaplin found himself a star. That puzzled him, for he saw himself essentially as a shy British Music Hall comedian. The U.S., acknowledged him as its king of silent film comedy. Soon,so did crowds all over the world.

But life wasn't always a laugh for Charles Spencer Chaplin. Both his parents were Music Hall artists, who separated when Charlie was very young. His childhood was very sad, for his mother never earned enough to look after her children. Somtimes, Chaplin had to sleep on the streets.

Charlie took his first bow on the stage, when his mother made her last appearance. It happened when her voice broke during a song. Her son stepped on stage and sang a popular song. That's when a star was born.

Questions:

- c) What did Charlie see himself as?
- d) Give one reason to show that Charlie's early life was very sad.
