Women education is very important for the social and economic growth of the country. Both men and women are like two sides of the coin and run equally like two wheels of the society. Hence both are important elements for the growth and development of the country. Thus they require equal opportunity for education. If anyone is neglected social progress is not possible. The female education in India is highly necessary for the future of the country as women are the first teachers of their children, the future of the nation. If education of women is ignored, it would be a deterrent to the bright future of the nation. An uneducated woman cannot handle the family, give proper care for the children and thus cannot guide the future generation

Tsi12E

An educated woman may easily handle her family, make each family member responsible, infuse good qualities in children, and participate in social work. All these would lead towards a socially and economically healthy nation. By educating a man, only a man be educated however by educating a woman, a whole country can be educated.
