Schools all over India celebrate Children's Day on 14th November every year. On this day our great prime Minister, who had a great love for children, was born. His ancestors came down from Kashmir to the rich plains below. Kaul had been his family name. This changed to Kaul- Nehru and in later years Kaul was dropped and they simply became Nehrus. Jawaharlal Nehru was the only son of his prosperous parents. His two sisters were much younger to Jawaharlal Nehru. And so he grew up and spent his early years as a lonely child with no companion of his own age. Private tutors were in charge of his education. Then he went to England and was educated at Trinity College, Cambridge.

Questions:

- Why is 14 November celebrated as Children's Day?
- Why did Jawaharlal Nehru spend his early years as a lonely child?
- Where did Pandit Nehru's ancestors come from?
- What was their family name?
- Name the educational Institution he attended in England?
