44. Write a summary of the following passage.

a) Charity is a universal duty which is in every man's power to be sometimes exercised since every assistance given to another from a right motive is an act of charity, and is seldom in such infirmity that he cannot benefit his neighbour in any case. He who cannot relieve the poor can instruct the ignorant, and he who cannot minister to the sick can restore the wicked. He who can give little help himself may undertake the duty of aims by inciting the greed of others and recommending petitions that he cannot grant to those who have more power to give. The widow who puts her mite into her treasury and the poor man who brings a cup of cold water to the thirsty will not lose their reward.

I am thrilled that May is finally here! Now I can enjoy what I call "the sweet taste of summer!" Watermelons are in the stores, and I plan to eat one every day for the next three months. I think watermelons taste better than any other fruit. Peaches, plums, and strawberries are also great in the summer. I enjoy eating those, too. But they just don't taste as good to me as a sweet, sweet watermelon. My whole family likes eating watermelons. We ate at least three watermelons a week last year. This year, I am going to eat watermelon every day, all summer long.

1. Why is the girl excited that May has arrived?
2. What is her favourite fruit?
3. How long will the watermelons be available?
4. What other summer fruits does the girl enjoy?
5. What is your favourite summer fruit? Why do you like this particular fruit?
