He is immersed in Anantasara, the temple tank. The speciality about this temple is, the deity is brought out once in 40 years and Puja's done for 48 days and restored to his water bed. For forty long years, the temple had no deity for worship thus no puja happening in the temple. The two brothers in the Dhatacharya lineage under whose authority, the deity was hidden passed away thus taking away the secret forever. Unable to locate the original deity of Athi Varadar, The authorities of the temple decided to install the deity made out of stone and thus a deity from Padma Giri was brought and worshipped. At last the authorities then decided to take the Vighraha out only once in forty years for 48 days and keep him back.
