44. (a) Write a summary Or make notes of the following passage.

Leadership does not exist without followership. A leader has to be accepted by the group which the former is supposed to lead. To gain acceptability, the leader should cause an emotive impact on the group members. The strength of character exhibited by the leaders makes them dear to the followers. A leader is one who effectively inspires followers to achieve worthwhile things. What character of the leader motivates the followers? It is not pomp and show, neither flattery nor sanctioning more incentives. Pomp and show creates a sense of awe and the leader is deified rather than emulated. Flattery is unrealistic and cannot serve as long term motivational tool. A leader's style should be one that can be emulated by all irrespective of cadre, class and calibre. Simplicity in one's day-to-day conduct is the only thing that can be adopted by all. When leader is simple, he is counted as one belonging to the group of which he is the leader. That is enough to motivate the people. Motivation is the innate quality that enables an individual or group to contribute unlimitedly with limited means. It is proud prerogative of enlightened human beings.
