When Andrew Carnegie came to America from Scotland, he was just a lad. (He started out by running errands and ended up as one of the largest steel manufacturers in the United States.) Someone once asked Mr. Carnegie how he dealt with people. Andrew Carnegie replied, (Dealing with people is a lot like digging for gold.) When you go digging for an ounce of gold, you have to move tons of dirt. But when you go digging, you don't go looking for the dirt, you go looking for the gold."

Andrew Carnegie's reply has a very important message. Though sometimes it may not be apparent, there is something positive in every person and every situation. We have to look deep for the positive.
